

GRAYSON B. HILL, M.S., CCC-SLP
University of South Alabama
5721 USA Drive North, HAHN 1119
Mobile, Alabama 36688
251-445-9366 · graysonhill@southalabama.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of South Alabama

College of Allied Health/Speech and Hearing Clinic

Senior Instructor, Speech Pathology

Instructor, Speech Pathology

August 2014 present

August, 2021 present

August, 2014 July, 2021

- Fulltime, nontenured faculty member in Speech Language Pathology/Audiology
- Provided clinical supervision and instruction to graduate students in Speech-Language Pathology completing required clinical practicum hours as part of SLP 596: Clinical Practicum in Speech-Language Pathology
- Served as course master for the following courses:
 - SLP 59601 Issues in Clinical Pract(1 cr.)
 - SLP 59602 Issues in Clinical Pract(3 cr.)
 - SLP 596103: Clinical Practicum(2 cr.)
 - SHS 480: Issues in Clinical Pract(4 cr.)
 - SHS 481 Introduction to the Clinical Pract(4 cr.)
 - SLP 568: Dysphagia(3 cr.)
 - RST 580: Clinical Methd(1 scr.)
 - RST 580: Clinical Methd(2 scr.)
- Served as Guest Lecturer for the following courses: motor speech disorders,

articulation

Thomas Hospital/Infirmaria Health System

March 2012 August 2014

Speech-Language Pathologist

- Full-time interdisciplinary team member in acute care hospital and hospital based outpatient therapy clinic for pediatric and adult clients
- Established pediatric dysphagia program for inpatient and outpatient setting including newborn nursery and follow up for children newborn through adolescents
- Provided evaluation and treatment of inpatient adult and geriatric patients with neurogenic communication and swallowing disorders, as well as outpatient pediatric and adult patient population with speech language voice and swallowing disorders/delays
- Performed Modified Barium Swallows studies for pediatric and adult patients
- Worked closely with Marketing Department to provide physician nursing and community education along with composition of print media utilized for marketing therapy services
- Provided student supervision for university graduate programs Speech Language Pathology, as well as undergraduate and high school programs for allied health students

Baptist Health
Prattville Baptist Hospital (1999-2012)

August, 1992-2012
Selma Baptist Hospital (1996-2001)

Speech-Language Pathologist (2005-2012)

- PRN/Part time interdisciplinary team member in acute care hospital and hospital based outpatient clinic
- Provided evaluation and treatment of patient adult and geriatric patients with neurogenic communication and swallowing disorders, as well as pediatric and adult patient population with speech language voice and swallowing disorders
- Performed Modified Barium Swallow studies for pediatric and adult patients
- Provided student supervision for university graduate programs Speech Language Pathology, as well as undergraduate and high school programs for allied health students

Speech-Language Pathology Manager (1996-2005)

- Established Speech Language Pathology program for 2 separate acute care hospitals providing assessment and treatment of speech language, and swallowing disorders for adult and geriatric

HONORS AND AWARDS

University of South Alabama, Mortar Board Tip of the Cap , April 2019

University of South Alabama, Alpha Eta Society, March 2019

American Speech and Hearing Association, 4th Award for Continuing Education (ACE) 2018

Rotary International, Paul Harris Fellow, 2005 and 1994

University of Montevallo, Scottish Rite Fellow, 1995

University of Montevallo, Sigma Alpha Pi Society for CSD, 1995

University of Montevallo, Dean s List 1993

University of Montevallo, Sigma Tau Delta International English Honor Society

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Refereed Presentations and Publications

Smith, K. A.,

MillerWalker, A.Hill, G.B., Make Meal Times Happy Times: A Free Workshop for Parents of Picky Eaters,
Presentation at Infirmiry Health System, Thomas Hospital, October 2, 2018,