

South Carolina Workers' Compensation

Workers' Compensation Commission

We are operating under a temporary order
subject to the South Carolina
Workers' Compensation Act.

In case of an accidental injury or death to an employee, the injured employee, or someone acting on his or her behalf, give immediate notice to the employer or general authorized agent. Failure to give such immediate notice may be the cause of serious delay in the payment of compensation to the injured employee or his or her dependents and may result in failure to receive any compensation benefits under the law.

1. Notify your employer as soon as possible. You cannot receive benefits unless your employer knows you are injured.
2. Tell the doctor your employer sends you that you are covered by workers' compensation.
3. Notify the Workers' Compensation
