

GRADUATE STUDENT SURVEY

This report presents an overview of key data derived from items in the Graduate Student Satisfaction (GSS) survey. This GSS was administered during the fall semester of 2021. The general objective of the GSS is to gather graduate student perceptions related to several components of their educational experience at the University of South Alabama. Of the 5,519 graduate students currently enrolled at USA, the final sample included 976 respondents.

Respondent Racial Demographics:

80% of graduate students reported being satisfied with the academic advising they received

Of 968 respondents, 80.17% agreed or strongly agreed that they are satisfied with the academic advising they received in Fall 2021. 12.91% disagreed and 6.92% strongly disagreed

96% reported that they find the electronic library full-text databases useful during their studies

Of 874 respondents, 96.23% agreed or strongly agreed that they find the electronic library full-text databases useful during their studies. 2.52% disagreed and 1.26% strongly disagreed.

22% of students reported a neutral stance when asked if they felt that their educational experiences have a positive

Graduate Students and Professional Training:

