

Graduating Student Satisfaction Survey Report: Spring 2022

This report presents a snapshot of key data derived from items in the Graduating Student Survey. This survey was administered during the last four weeks of spring semester 2022. The general objective is to gather student perceptions related to several components of their educational experience as well as post-graduation plans.

Survey Launch:

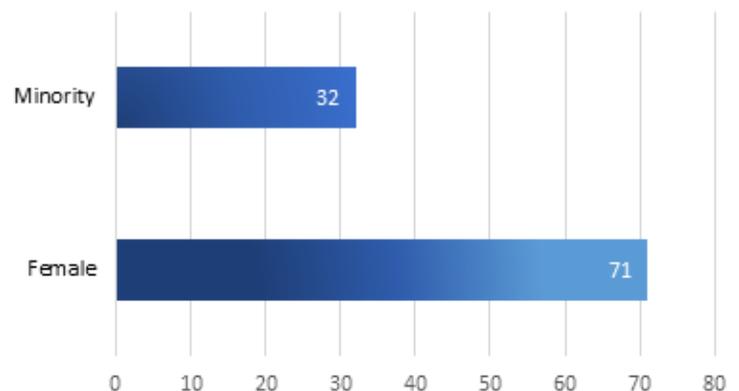

The GSS is conducted electronically and includes Likert scale, multiple choice, and open-ended questions. Data collection for the GSS occurred during the last four weeks of spring semester of 2022. Students were invited to participate in the GSS via email. Reminder emails were sent to non-respondent students every three days until the close of the survey. Participation was voluntary, and no incentives were provided to students for their participation.

Sampling Method:

A total of 1,600 students were invited to complete the GSS. Exactly 659 students responded to the survey, yielding a response rate of 41%. Key respondent demographics are provided to the right.

Respondent Demographics (%)

Graduating Students and Faculty

In general, faculty were interested in my academic success:

The coursework for my program was engaging:

Academic Advising

Over 72% of students were satisfied with the quality of advising for career planning