

of Food and Agriculture (NIFA): "This work is supported by [Program Name] [grant no. XXXX-XXXXX-XXXXX/project accession no. XXXXXXXX] from the USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture." Whenever practical, NIFA also expects that grantees use NIFA's official identifier in publications, posters, websites and presentations resulting from their award. In addition, all publications and other materials, except scientific articles or papers published in scientific journals, must contain the following statement: "Any opinions, findings, conclusions, or recommendations expressed in this publication are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the view of the U.S. Department of Agriculture."

The agency known as the Cooperative State Research, Education, and Extension Service (CSREES) was abolished upon establishment of the National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA); therefore, all references to "CSREES" are to be changed to "NIFA" (76 FR 4801; January 27, 2011).

PRESS ANNOUNCEMENTS AND MEDIA INTERVIEWS

Recommended awards should not be announced in any manner by a grantee until approval is obtained by NIFA's communication office. This applies to press releases, newsletters, press interviews, and web or social media postings. In many cases, the Secretary of Agriculture may want to personally announce the award.

NIFA grant awardees are requested to coordinate all public announcements with NIFA's Communication Staff. Simultaneous announcement by NIFA and the grantee are preferred.

is the single largest supporter of basic research in the physical sciences in the United States, and is working to address some of the most pressing challenges of our time. For more information, please visit science.energy.gov."

For Work for Others performed AT an Office of Science National Laboratory:

On first reference, the name of the Laboratory should read "...the Department of Energy's Oak Ridge National Laboratory..."

The following "boilerplate" text must appear at the end of the item or release, "The Oak Ridge National Laboratory is a U.S. Department of Energy Office of Science national laboratory that provides computational resources for scientific research. It is managed by Lockheed Martin Research Corporation for the U.S. Department of Energy under contract number DE-AC02-04OR21400. For more information, please visit science.energy.gov."

necessarily reflect those of the Agency. EPA does not endorse any products or commercial services mentioned in this publication.

- Publications. Advise your EPA project officer and the Research Grants Communication Director (NCER_Communications@epa.gov) in advance when announcing or publishing research findings. The project officer's name, email address and phone number are on your Notice of Grant Award.
- EPA Logo use. To use the EPA logo or seal for purposes acceptable to the Agency, permission must be granted by EPA's Office of Public Affairs. To request permission, contact OPA's Belinda Blackman at 202-564-7848 or blackman.belinda@epa.gov.

Conditions of permission:

- Neither the logo nor seal may be altered in its proportions.
- No element may be removed or added to the seal or logo.
- Neither the seal nor the logo may be merged into another illustration or modified in any other way.
- The applicant may not suggest that use of the logo or seal implies endorsement of any organization, idea, product or service.
- OPA may require that the logo and/or seal be accompanied by an appropriate disclaimer.
Learn more about using the EPA seal and logo.

Press Events

IMLS support should be orally acknowledged during all news media interviews, including radio, television, and press conferences.

Public Events

At programs or public gatherings related to your award, acknowledge IMLS orally. Display the logo on signage at events.

Recorded Audio/Video

Audio/video broadcasts must include the tagline, "This project is made possible by a grant from the U.S. Institute of Museum and Library Services." Video broadcasts must display the IMLS logo.

National Endowment for the Arts

<https://www.arts.gov/sites/default/files/GTC-for-organizations-rev2-12.14.20.pdf>

Acknowledgment of the National Endowment for the Arts must be prominently displayed in all materials and announcements for your funded project. See the Manage Your Award section of www.arts.gov for copies of the most up-to-date National Endowment for the Arts logos.

National Endowment for the Humanities

<https://www.neh.gov/grants/manage/acknowledgment-and-publicity-requirements-neh-awards>

The National Endowment for the Humanities requires public acknowledgment of the projects it supports, as outlined in the terms and conditions of your award. Unless advised to the contrary, an acknowledgment of NEH support and the policy statement must appear on all materials publicizing or resulting from award activities. The NEH logo and credit line should also be used in acknowledging NEH support whenever possible.

An acknowledgment must be contained in any materials resulting from or related to the NEH award, such as articles, books, films, radio programs, databases, reports, Web resources, as well as exhibits, events, and publicity related to the award. The prominence of the acknowledgment should be in direct relationship to the level of NEH funding provided for the project relative to any other sources of funding. Where possible, NEH support should be mentioned in newspaper articles, radio interviews, and other media activities to extend the effects of your project. If you have any questions regarding the forms of acknowledgment for your project, please contact the NEH program officer named in the award document.

National Institutes of Health

<https://grants.nih.gov/policy/federal-funding.htm>

The NIH grants policy statement outlines requirements for acknowledging Federal funding in the National Science Foundation

https://www.nsf.gov/publications/pub_summ.jsp?ods_key=pappg

NSF advocates and encourages open scientific and engineering communication. NSF expects significant findings from research it supports to be promptly submitted for publication, with authorship that accurately reflects the contributions of those involved. Copyrighted material published in peer-reviewed scholarly journals and papers included in juried conference proceedings must comply with NSF's Public Access Policy as implemented in the grant general terms and conditions.

Grantee Obligations:

- a. Acknowledgement of Support. Unless otherwise provided in the grant, the grantee is responsible for assuring that an acknowledgment of NSF support is made: (i) in any publication (including web pages) of any material based on or developed under this project; and (ii) NSF support also must be orally acknowledged during all news media interviews, including popular media such as radio, television and news magazines.
- b. Disclaimer. The grantee is responsible for assuring that every publication of material (including web pages) based on or developed under an NSF award, except scientific articles or papers appearing in scientific, technical or professional journals, contains a disclaimer that specifies that the opinions, findings, and conclusions or recommendations expressed are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Science Foundation.
- c. Copies for NSF. The grantee is responsible for assuring that the cognizant NSF Program Officer is provided access to, either electronically or in paper form, a copy of every publication of material based on or developed under this award, clearly labeled with the award number and other appropriate identifying information, promptly after publication.
- d. Compliance with NSF Public Access Policy. The grantee is responsible for ensuring that copyrighted material published in peer-reviewed scholarly journals and papers in juried conference proceedings are accessible to the public in accordance with the grant general terms and conditions.
- e. Grantees also should note their obligations in regard to copyrights (see Chapter XI.D.2) and their responsibilities as members of the scientific and engineering community to disseminate and share research results.
- f. Each NSF grant contains as part of the grant general terms and conditions, an article implementing the grantee obligations regarding the acknowledgement of support and disclaimer.