Memphis, Tenn, July 21 – The Southern Baseball Association today welcome Knoxville into its membership.

With the transfer of the Southern franchise to Knoxville, Mobile's 22 years of Southern League baseball came to an end.

Berd Douglas of Nashville, president of the Mobile Base ball Corporation, informed Southern directors yesterday that the corporation was unable to sponsor further games at Mobile. City councilman Wm. Smithson, of Knoxville, then presented an offer from Knoxville interests, and the Mobile franchise was ordered delivered to the fourth Tennessee city to become a member of the league.

Smithson said a corporation would be formed at Knoxville at once to take over the Mobile baseball corporation. Terms of the deal were not announced, but president John D. Martin of the association said minority stockholders of the Mobile corporation will continue to hold their stock and when the Knoxville corporation is formed will be given an equivalent amount of stock in that organization. Mobile became a member of the Southern League in 1908, replacing Shreveport, La. Milton Stock, manager of the Mobile Marines will remain at the head of the club after its removal to Knoxville.

New York Yankees vs. New Orleans Pels

Mobile – Predicated considerably by the erratic pitching of the opposing pitchers and timely hitting on their own part, the New York Yankees yesterday afternoon defeated the New Orleans Pelicans 6 to 5 at Hartwell Field.

The first two Yankee runs came as the result of real base hits, but the next two runs secured in the sixth inning were a gift from Butzman, New Orleans hurler, when he walked one and hit another, with the bases loaded. The final two scores in the eighth inning came as a result of two base hits.

While [Hvidos] and Butzman were holding the Yankees in excellent style, as far as hitting was concerned, the Pelicans found big Walter Brown easy and nicked him for seven of their 10 hits and all their scores in the five innings he worked on the mound.

The Pels, despite the fact that they were playing the world champions, suffered little from stage fright and battled the Yankees to a standstill throughout most of the fray, and but for an accident may have been returned victors over the American League team. They outthit the Yankees 10 to 6.

In the sixth inning, Butzman, who had relieved Hvidos in the fourth inning, walked Gehrig, Dickey, and Powell to fill the bases. Not satisfied, the wild right-hander then walked Lazzeri to force in one run and hit Crosetti with a pitched ball to make another marker for the champions.

Jack E. Bolling

Jack E. Bolling, real estate and insurance man and former major league baseball player, filed qualifying papers as a candidate for place No. 1 on the City Commission, now held by Chas. A. Baumhauer.

Bolling, who played with the Mobile Bears the first two months of the 1947 season and then retired from baseball, was twice in the major leagues. In the years 1939, he was with the Philadelphia Phillies and next with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Early in 1946, after serving in the army, he returned to his home in Mobile and joined up with the Mobile Bears.

"I was never in shape all season," he said, referring to his playing with the Mobile team, although his batting average was .285. The former big leaguer has no regrets for quitting the game. He is happily married with two children. Mr. Bolling was a former Spring Hill High and American Legion star.

Brooklyn vs. Mobile

The Brooklyn B team looked like a Class B team for two innings last night and as a result, the Lil Dodgers dropped a 12 to 7 decision to the Mobile Bears at Hartwell Field.

Bruce Edwards, a former Mobile Bear and now with the Brooklyn Dodgers, was not in the line up with the Brooklyn B team last night, but Bill Antero and Cal Abrams were in the Dodger lineup.

Milton Stock, a former Mobile ball player is with the Brooklyn Dodgers this season along with Burt Shotton and Jake Piller as coaches.

Hall gave up only five hits and struck out seven Nashville hitters.
